Code of Conduct Handbook for the Students

1. Preamble of the Book of Conduct

This Handbook indicates the standard procedures and practices of all the enrolled students of this Institute for pursuing varied courses. All students must know that it is incumbent upon them to abide by this Code of Ethics and Conduct (hereinafter referred to as the 'Code') and the rights, responsibilities including the restrictions flowing from it.

That the Institute's endeavour by means of enforcing this Code is to pioneer and administer a student discipline process that is egalitarian, conscientious, effectual and expeditious; and providing a system which promotes student growth through individual and collective responsibility. All Students are requested to be well conversant with this Code, which can be also reviewed on the official website of the Institute.

2. Statement of Vision and Mission of the Institute

In order to know properly the ethics of code of conduct of the college, the students must acquaint with the statement of vision and mission of the college, which contains the primary aims and objectives, on which the college was founded and still pursues its functions.

Vision:

The vision of the institute "is to make the students cognizably sound and ethically strong so as to enable them to carry out the task of building of the nation".

The college was established in 1897 in the lush-green vicinity of Hetampur Village in the district of Birbhum and is the oldest college of the district which actually helps in creating an atmosphere of learning and pedagogy for the first time in this area. It was founded by Maharani Padma Sundari Devi, wife of Maharaja Ramranjan Chakraborty, in the name of her father-in-law Raja Krishna Chandra. Before the formal start of its functioning, the college got in 1896 the seal of approval from the University Of Calcutta to teach the First Arts course. For about 25 years, the college functioned as an intermediate College. In 1923, it obtained the permission to teach B.A course. In 1956, the college becomes a Govt.-Sponsored Institution. In 1958, the B. Sc course was open. Since the early sixties, the college began to open Honours courses, one after another, and now it has 14 Honours departments besides B. Com General faculty not a mean achievement for a college located in rural area. Hence, propounding the idea of an all inclusive and comprehensive notion of education without compromising with the quality remain an important vision of the college since its inception.

Mission:

"Universal access of learning irrespective of the caste and creed and among all the strata of the society".

The college authority sincerely and honestly care for the very purpose of its existence: expanding the scope of higher education for the weaker sections of the society including students of poor financial background, who are first generation learners, students who are marginalized in the society. The college wants to see that no student is deprived of Higher Education due to financial and other constraints that are prevalent in the society at large.

Institution's distinctive characteristics:

- In tune with Higher Education policy the mission of our institute contributes to national development through dissemination of specialized knowledge and skills. We believe that if a student is cognizably sound in a particular subject then he can face and solve every aspect of his life which includes the issues of humanity also.
- Considering the socio-economic status of the locality, we have to compromise with quality to ensure the spread of education among all students irrespective of caste, creed and sex.

3. Jurisdiction
