Code of Conduct Handbook for Non-Teaching Staffs

Preamble to the Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct is intended as a guide and a help to all school staff. It sets out standards of conduct which staff are expected to follow when within, or representing the Institute. This code is not exhaustive but is written to assist staff and it is important that staff should take advice and guidance if necessary. The underlying purpose is to ensure that the Institute provides a high quality service to its pupils and stakeholders in accordance with the Mission Statement and to promote public confidence in the integrity of the Institute. It takes in the requirements of the law and attempts to define the required levels of professionalism to ensure the well-being of the College and its stakeholders. It has been drafted to comply with Institute's Policies and Procedures. Staffs are requested to read this Code carefully and consider the issues which it raises.

1. Staff should display the highest possible standards of professional behaviour that is required in an educational establishment .

2. Staff should seek to co-operate with their colleagues, providing support, help and guidance as required by them and their line manager, and enable effective communication throughout the School.

3. Staff should not use their position in the college for private advantage or gain.

4. Staff should avoid words and deeds that might bring the School into disrepute or might undermine colleagues in the perception of others (staff/pupils/parents/community).

5. Staff should retain professional independent objectivity and not promote dogma or political bias to others in their working activities.

6. Staff should be aware of, and should follow School policies systems and procedures. They should normally communicate through the line management structure, and should ensure pupils do likewise.
7. Continuing professional development and support shall be provided by the college and, where appropriate and agreed, will be based on the objectives of the School Development Plan. Periodically, employees will be required to attend certain training activities.
8. Staffs should attend their place of work punctually in accordance with their conditions of service and at the times agreed with their line manager. Those unable to avoid being late or absent should, whenever possible, give as much notice to the Principal so that alternative cover arrangements may be made.
9. Staff shall maintain the appropriate levels of confidentiality with respect to student and staff records and other sensitive matters. They should take care not to discuss issues of particularly sensitive matters within the School community which could cause distress to School staff, pupils or parents.
10. The Principal should also ensure that all staff are aware of the Code's contents and are fully briefed on its implications.
11. Reference to this Code will be made in all contacts of employment, and copies will be given to all staff. In addition, the induction programme for all new staff will reinforce the principles of this Code.
12. Investigations of alleged breaches of this Code will be covered under the Institute's Disciplinary procedures and related codes of practice.

Some Specific Aspects:

13. Discrimination: Staff must at all times observe the School's Equal Opportunities Policies for staff and pupils and treat pupils, parents and other stakeholders in accordance with those policies.
14. Health and Safety: Staff must take care of their personal hygiene, safety and welfare, and that of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions. All staff must comply with the requirements of the School Health and Safety policy and relevant legislation and regulations, and also ensure that pupils do likewise.

15. Fire: Staff must familiarise themselves with the fire precautions, procedures and drill routines. They must regard practice fire drills or building evacuations in a positive manner, and ensure they are perceived by pupils as an essential precaution to prevent risk of injury or fatality.
16. Business Practice: Staff must maintain an impeccable standard of integrity in all their professional relationships.
17. Media: Other than on matters of publicity, only the Principal is authorised to speak or send any communication on behalf of the School to members of the press or broadcast media. This decision is to avoid any embarrassment or unfair pressure on staff. This authorisation may be extended by the Principal to other staff members.
18. Copyright: Staff shall observe copyright laws on computer software, audio-visual and printed material.
19. It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure the School's compliance with the Data Protection Act. Personal data must only be used to assist you to carry out your work; it must not be given to people who have no right to see it. All staff should maintain the security of all computerised databases of information on individuals, whether they are staff, pupils or members of the general public. Staff should refer any queries to the Principal.
20. Staff shall maintain the appropriate levels of confidentiality with respect to student and staff records and other sensitive matters. They should take care not to discuss issues of particularly sensitive matters within the School community which could cause distress to college staffs, pupils or parents.
